Tibetan Aid Project

November 14, 2020

Dear Friends,

For 19 years, November has been the month we have come together at Taste & Tribute to help preserve the wisdom tradition of Tibet. Sadly, we will miss this year's celebration. However, with circumstances as they are, this is an opportunity for us to acknowledge and appreciate the chefs who have supported Taste & Tribute, some for many years, and some since the beginning, Chef Laurent Manrique, Chef Peter Armellino, and Chef Gerald Hirigoyen.

Clearly our event is not possible without their generosity and kind support. After all, they've helped create one of the best culinary events on the San Francisco charitable giving calendar. This is actually a quote from a Taste & Tribute donor who has been to more events in San Francisco than I think even he can count!

It is now time to support them. Knowing the pressure and unimaginable circumstances they are experiencing, I urge you to dine at their restaurants and let them know their industry is not forgotten, and more personally, that we have not forgotten them.

Each restaurant offers a variety of ways to enjoy their exceptional menus, dine-in, take out, and/or delivery. And with the holidays just around the corner, we all know gift cards make our friends, family and co-workers smile. Or, perhaps with smaller Thanksgiving gatherings this year, letting your family chef off the hook by ordering the holiday meal for takeout.

I'm happy to share with you some of our contributing chefs below, those who participated at 2019 Taste & Tribute.

Thank you for continuing and supporting these relationships. I'm sure the chefs would love to know, that you too, were at Taste & Tribute.

Bon Appétit!

With all best wishes,

Susan Lemieux
